

SHIPPING AND DELIVERY POLICY

Go4food is the online food delivery platform limited to only maisammguda, Dhulapally locality, but it will be further expanded to many places. Read about our delivery & Shipment policy to know how we work.

Go4food Will deliver the order to the address mentioned at the time of placing the order at go4food.online. Our delivery person shall call you on the number provided while placing the order. “go4food” will not be responsible for any wrong information provided while placing the order which might result in failure of delivery.

In case of failure in delivery due to problems mentioned below, the refund for the order will not be initiated as per our “Refund Policy”, so we request all our clients to provided to the perfect address possible so that we can reach you without any hindrance.

Go4food will not be responsible if the order delivery failed due to the following:

- Unable to reach the customer due to problem at customer end.
- No one is available at the delivery address.
- The time of delivery is beyond our delivery time.
- Delivery address is outside our delivery zone.

For any problems you can get in touch with our numbers provided at our website (go4food.online)